

Legal Outsourcing Strategies Panel in This Year's T3 Event
Tuesday December 5, 12:24 pm ET

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 /PRNewswire/ -- This years ALM event 'Trial Tactics & Technology' (T3) is scheduled at Westin Times Square hotel in NYC on December 7th and 8th. This year's event is unique as it features a legal services outsourcing panel discussion. The panel will present litigation outsourcing case studies featuring companies and law firms which have successfully reduced cost while maintaining quality and increasing productivity. Lawwave, a leader in the legal outsourcing market, has been invited to present a case study.

Martin D. Beirne, who is the co-chair of the T3 event and also the founding partner of Beirne Maynard & Parsons LLP said, "Outsourcing can provide companies and law firms with strategic and competitive advantages. The T3 Conference Outsourcing Panel brings together a unique group of experts to explore the challenges and opportunities this dynamic trend brings to the legal marketplace."

Sumeet Nath, vice president and cofounder of Lawwave, a legal outsourcing firm and a member of the T3 outsourcing panel quoted, "This is an excellent event for litigation lawyers and corporate counsels to attend. The discussions will cover both the in-house and vendor strategies for outsourcing and offshoring. The panel's experience and case studies will bring out considerable common interest. I am expecting an intriguing discussion."

For event registration please call (866) 526-6955 or email: register@almevents.com.

For further information or comments about this release, please contact Lawwave at info@lawwave.com or 212 967 4708. Lawwave is a legal outsourcing firm based in NYC with an offshore presence in India.